PART II TEACHING PLAN

Introduction

ATTENTION: Today, we are going to continue the drill by six (6) cadets for around eight (8) minutes each.

MOTIVATION: Do you, as an individual, believe that you are sufficiently knowledgeable to perform the position as drill instructor?

OVERVIEW: The drill by each cadet will allow everyone to learn how their command voice is and if it needs work.

TRANSITION: FALL IN!

Body

Note: The instructor will have the selected cadets drill the entire flight for eight (8) minutes each.

The instructor will have the fourth set of selected cadets drill the flight using all of the previously learned movements as listed below, changing cadets every eight (8) minutes.

Conclusion

SUMMARY: During the period you have been drilled by various cadet drill leaders using all of the previous learned movements as we continue to have each cadet drill the flight.

REMOTIVATION: The more you have different drill leaders, the more you will become use to the different styles of giving commands.

CLOSURE: FALL OUT!
